

Appetizers

“I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my daily bread.” Job 23:12

Choose from a variety of bite-sized, flavorful portions of God’s word to whet the appetite. This is the place to start if you’re hungry and have the time to enjoy a little extra in your meal. These selections are not intended to replace the main course, but are wonderful additions to the banquet that will open your tastebuds (and your heart) to enjoy what will follow.
